

Table of Contents

Preface: The inside track, including sex	15
Choosing words: cannabis, marijuana, hemp, ... • The propaganda begins • Exposing the ultimate hypocrisy • What drugs are dangerous? • Cannabis: no medical value? • The gateway theory is government smoke and mirrors • Why don't more doctors recommend medical marijuana? • When did war become a domestic policy? • A wiser approach • A cautionary tale for politicians • "We don't want to send the wrong message" • Ready for the adventure? • Example of how marijuana improves lovemaking
Chapter 1: Early childhood in Northern California	31
Early memories • My introduction to grass at age eight, 1936 • Dad responds to a well-meant suggestion • How The Marijuana Tax Act of 1937 came about • Race fears exploited to outlaw marijuana • My parents divorce; Mom moves us to Washington, D.C. • DEA says it can't tell the difference between hemp and marijuana! • Back to the West Coast • Mother encouraged my cannabis education! • Our beautiful mother is ill • Stinson Beach – and a tidal wave! • First "radio show" • Kissed by an angel
Chapter 2: World War II begins	42
Hemp for Victory! • Pushed around by the wrong guy • San Rafael High School; almost expelled • Alcohol versus pot • Making love for the first time • Groucho Marx swears by (at) me!
Chapter 3: Motorcycles, alcohol, and marijuana	56
Motorcycle rider loses his leg • Police officer knows marijuana is medicine • La Guardia Marijuana Report, 1944 • Me, in a warehouse? • My first joint • Face to face with 14,000 Lions; pot helps • It's 4:20, Louie!
Chapter 4: Hired as lifeguard – alcohol, pot, and girls	72
In love with a prostitute • Interviewing Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall • Me, in San Quentin? • Expelled from high school • A broken heart
Chapter 5: Marijuana – and the student body president?	89
Saving lives is all in a day's work • Getting even with William Randolph Hearst • How the first drug czar created the war on marijuana • Anslinger groups pot with heroin – as it is today • Why I wanted to win the Hearst oratory contest
Chapter 6: Top salesman, with the help of cannabis	105
A new love; grass also aided her creativity • A loving gift from Mother

Chapter 7: Oregon and Alaska, with loving adventures 116

My first airplane; almost landing on a cow! • Adventures in Alaska; meeting an inventive pot-smoking prostitute • A swinging lady and a swinging party; “No drugs – only pot!”

Chapter 8: Meeting my soul mate, Hazel 138

A forced landing with precious Hazel • Me, married? • What is harm reduction? • Building homes – and muscles • Growing more than tomatoes! • Almost killed by my carpenter • Death from grass? • Hazel ill

Chapter 9: Moving to Hawaii – almost losing all our money!... 160

Meeting Henry J. Kaiser • Opening auto agency; locals try to put us out of business • Creativity comes in small packages • Cannabis again became my medicine • Death of a salesman • Our handsome son is born

Chapter 10: Breaking a world record – aided by pot 176

Helped by industrialist Henry J. Kaiser • U.S. Navy trains me to be a diver • I go for the record • I want cannabis down my air line • Seconds from death

Chapter 11: Pot helps me make an adventurous career change 191

Meditating with cannabis • Pot creativity – uncovering a “corpse” • Why I refused to interview Elvis • Interviewing Cab Calloway – a genuine “reefer man” • Many more people use pot than surveys reveal • Interviewing Bing Crosby; I ask if he uses grass • Co-hosting the Jerry Lewis telethon; many wheelchair patients use cannabis • Milton Berle interview • Foreboding of tragedy to come • Terror from home • Interviewing Wayne Newton • One of the world’s greatest trumpeters, Harry James • The Reverend Billy Graham • Our beautiful daughter is born

Chapter 12: Meeting President Kennedy – a morose year 223

After success in many professions, I fail in the oldest one • The most terrible tragedy of my life • A new career in television • Sandy – a comedian-to-be? • Interviewing “the living dead” at the Hiroshima Atomic Bomb Hospital • “Don’t let it happen again!” • For once, Charlton Heston isn’t Number One! • Hawaii’s top radio personality smokes pot – on the air • Interviewing Don Ho • The revered Duke Kahanamoku • Wayne Newton was our special star • Cannabis helps Hawaii’s great talent Kui Lee find peace • Divorce

Chapter 13: Sex can be a joint venture 254

Black and white and red all over • Becoming an importer – and finding warm adventures • Making love using Thai cannabis • The Philippines • Buy a half million pot plants? • Hawaiian imports • Vietnam, the “perfect storm” of Nixon’s untenable drug war • The Baroness Wootton Report, 1969 • “Tell me what you are doing to me!” • It seemed like a good idea to climb out of a window! • Hawaii, the land of Aloha and loving ladies • Something about Mari – Jane • Caught in the act by my son!

Chapter 14: Nixon meets a robot; I marry one! 278

Sandy’s sex education begins • The honeymoon • How the media support and fan the War on Drugs • The Canadian LeDain Commission Report, 1970 • The Jamaican Study, 1970 • Flying our plane to Washington, D.C. • Patty Sue finds our stolen Leeteg • Producing a commercial motion picture – assisted by pot • “Nani the best thing done on the Big Island” • Totally sold on Royal Gardens • Pot luck – included in the “Who’s Who of Hawaii”

Chapter 15: Meeting “the Howard Hughes of the South Pacific” 301

“Are the natives friendly?” • Am I going to be eaten? • Ford’s Fun Tour” • Busted • Trying to buy a ship • Would Hawaii’s Governor John Burns help us? • National Commission on Marihuana and Drug Abuse, 1972 • The Dutch Baan Commission, 1972 • Moving to the Big Island and Royal Gardens • “I have just the maid for you!” • Our Kahala home is cremated • Into real estate • Our Royal Gardens home almost demolished by 7.4 earthquake • A River takes our company by storm • Back on television • Smoking pot on live television • Local businesses look forward to each marijuana harvest

Chapter 16: It was “Cheech and Chong medicine”!..... 324

Invited to a party thrown by marijuana growers • Our salesman advertises good pot-growing land in High Times • Commission of the Australian Government, 1977 • A morose divorce • Feds okay marijuana for patients with medical necessity, 1978 • Flying the “magic carpet” • Dad with cancer, afraid of marijuana • A new love and a nightmare re-run • The Voice of Hawaii goes silent • National Academy of Sciences Report, 1982 • Planning a resort • Marijuana propaganda causes death • Marijuana Alert scares many away from pot; was it worth it? • Recycling 65-year-old propaganda • Reefer Madness reborn • Marijuana Alert – fact or fiction? • The potency myth • Marijuana users don’t need more and more pot • Reverse tolerance • Fetal Alcohol Syndrome charged • Monkey business • False alarm • A humorous man vs. the humorless Mann • The real problem

Chapter 17: Eruption! 351

“A bad birth” • Royal Gardens becomes the target of the fire goddess • A voyage; meeting “smoking” ladies • Many nurses smoke pot for sex, and recommend it as medicine • Dr. Pessler only wanted to pinch an Italian lady’s bottom • More Hawaiian adventures include double eruptions • A handsome eruption: our grandson is born • Lady pot smokers are the finest lovers • Royal Gardens and Kalapana area overrun by hot lava • Moving back to the mainland after 30 years • Cannabis: geriatric wonder drug? • Cannabis as psychotherapy for prisoners – including terrorists? • Hawaii state representative John S. Carroll shows courage • Dad becomes a best friend • Meeting an artistic lady friend in Sonoma • First high school reunion – forty years later

Chapter 18: Death doesn’t take a holiday 381

Burying dad and mom at sea, illegally • “Humans and animals have always sought intoxication” • The eruption never stops • Going to Southeast Asia – and possible death • Me, in a monastery? • I feel a poison dart aimed at my back • How it feels to be the ugly American • Diagnosed with cancer; marijuana becomes my medicine • In New Zealand baby lambs are better known as lamb chops! • Still in pain • Weight gain, cancer, and other diseases corrected by diet change? • How teen pregnancies could be reduced • A mournful discovery • Hoping to save my children from the “proper” food • Innocent mother shot in neck and killed by SWAT team

Chapter 19: The DEA decides it likes my home 400

Fire! • William Foster sentenced to 93 years for growing his medicine • Medical marijuana legalized in California and Arizona • Writing Marijuana: Not Guilty As Charged • A special love, and encouragement to publish • Medical marijuana honesty from The New England Journal of Medicine • Drug czar blowing smoke • Todd McCormick, “the Luther Burbank of medical marijuana” • MADD wants alcohol part of anti-drug ad campaign • Amazing courage from author William Chapin • Insurance pays for my ripped-off medical-marijuana plants • Solution to patients’ plants being stolen • Do international book distributors smoke pot? • Lady gets possible death sentence for using cannabis as medicine • The saga of Eric, a loveless boy who wanted to kill himself • Peter McWilliams and the death penalty – for using pot • The Million Marijuana March • What is the Million Marijuana March about? • Foster is released after his 93-year sentence is reduced • A return to the islands

Chapter 20: Urine testing is all wet 407

Urine testing for Congress? • Invited to debate the nation’s largest urine-testing companies • My reception: as warm as urine on ice • Are members of Congress rewarded for increasing urine testing? • Nationally recognized speakers resurrect Reefer Madness • Performance testing makes sense; urine testing smells • Following the stream of urine-testing reasoning • The Supreme Court creates new prospects for the urine-testing industry

Chapter 21: Findings and recommendations 437

What I’ve learned in 58 years from thousands of drug users • Designating marijuana a Schedule I drug is disgraceful hypocrisy • “We’re doing it for the kids” is a bald-faced lie • TV warning ads increase teen drug use! • Marijuana laws and propaganda are based on lies, not science • Lies upon lies upon lies • Studies show that cannabis is not a major DUI concern • Why few doctors, and no drug companies, recommend cannabis for pain • Who are these potheads, and why have they wasted their lives? • Cannabis is competition to major cartels • Competition from pot haunts alcohol companies • Is the drug war profitable for those who perpetuate it? • Is marijuana competition to pharmaceutical companies? • Synthetic marijuana compared to the real thing • Are organic cannabis patients treated fairly? • Pot smokers come from all walks of life – but walk a thorny path • Racism in the War on Drugs • Women used, abused, and incarcerated • The Higher Education Act punishes the poor • It isn't enough that you're sick or dying... • DEA terrorizes sick and dying California cannabis patients – why? • What's the alternative? • Who decides? Who should decide? • What must be done • Today's activists will be tomorrow's heroes • Too few users are active in the movement to reform marijuana laws • Are you a NORML person? • The Drug Policy Alliance • Common Sense for Drug Policy • The Marijuana Policy Project • The Internet will be a major factor in ending the War on Drugs • Jurors have more power than they know • Medical-marijuana patients and caregivers winning jury trials • The struggle continues... • Federal court rules that doctors can recommend pot • The Supreme Court ignores marijuana's confirmed medical value • The efficacy of medical marijuana is confirmed – again • Santa Rosa bust drives patients back to the alleys • Santa Cruz bust targets the dying • San Francisco is a winner • Is beautiful Diane Sawyer cannabis-educated? • Federal judge's gag order backfires • Terminal multiple sclerosis patient meets Congressman • Congressman Barney Frank pushes for states' rights to legalize medical marijuana • Attorney General John Ashcroft raids firms selling cannabis equipment • States free inmates to save money • Medical-pot users lose in U.S. court • Poll puts pot on front burner • Vermont Senate passes medical-marijuana bill • Canadian judge stops pot possession trial • Dutch pharmacies start stocking medical marijuana • Cannabis medicine “on sale this year” in Britain • Bush to nominate woman prosecutor to head DEA • Maryland legislature snubs drug czar, okays medical marijuana • GOP leaders pressure Maryland governor to veto medical marijuana • Football star uses cannabis for relaxation and medicine • One final question